

RICHARD MUNRO FCA, NACD D.C.
RESTRUCTURING EXPERT, RECEIVER and FIDUCIARY

Richard Munro has over 30 years' experience bringing effective problem solving and leadership to growth, distressed & underperforming businesses, & transforming mediocrity into peak performance, measured by outstanding growth in revenue & market share, profits, return on capital employed, & value to shareholders, lenders and creditors. He has held senior executive positions as a CEO, CFO, COO, and CRO, been appointed in State and Federal courts as an Equity and Post Judgment Receiver, Provisional Director, Chief Restructuring Officer in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases, Court Expert, held strategic advisory positions in many industries, & has served as a corporate director on public, private equity, private company and multinational boards.

Richard is recognized as being very effective in identifying & solving problems that create business underperformance & financial distress, & quickly executing practical operational solutions for profitable growth & recoveries for lenders & creditors. He combines the unique experiences of a CEO, CFO and corporate director, & has extensive successful experience in creating financial value quickly from a strong focus on fixing operations & increasing cashflow & enterprise value.

Richard holds a Master of Business Administration degree in business strategy, a Bachelor's in Accounting and Management Information Systems, is a Fellow Chartered Accountant (FCA), & holds a California Real Estate Broker License BRE: 01900072. He also has extensive corporate director experience over 30 years serving on public, private equity, private and multinational company boards, and is currently a Board Leadership Fellow and Directorship Certified by the National Association of Corporate Directors and the President/CEO of the NACD Pacific Southwest Chapter, and a director of the California Receivers Forum.